Department of Statistics
Columbia University

Limited-term Faculty Position Starting Fall 2016

The Department of Statistics invites applications for a four-year term position at the rank of assistant professor to begin July 1, 2016. A PhD in statistics or a related field is required, as is a commitment to high quality research and teaching in statistics and/or probability. Candidates will be expected to sustain an active research and publication agenda and to teach in the departmental undergraduate and graduate programs.

The department currently consists of 30 faculty members, 45 PhD students, and over 200 MA students. The department has been expanding rapidly and, like the University itself, is an extraordinarily vibrant academic community. For further information about the department and our activities, centers, research areas, and curricular programs, please go to our web page at: http://www.stat.columbia.edu

All applications must be submitted through Columbia's online Recruitment of Academic Personnel System (RAPS) and must include the following materials: cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, research statement, evidence of teaching effectiveness, one writing sample or publication, and the names of 3 references into the system. Applicants also should arrange for three letters of recommendation to be uploaded on their behalf. For more information and to apply, please go to: https://academicjobs.columbia.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=61471

Inquiries may be made to dk@stat.columbia.edu

Review of applications begins on January 1, 2016, and will continue until the position is filled.

Columbia University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer.
