Notice of Filing of an Application for Permanent Employment Certification

FACULTY JOB
ANNOUNCEMENT

The Provost of the University of Washington has launched a major effort focused on Data-Driven Discovery, with a commitment to hire several new faculty in this area. In support of this effort, we are seeking candidates for a full-time Tenure-Track Assistant (0116) Professor position in the Department of Statistics at the University of Washington. This would be a full-time, multi-year, 9-month service period appointment. Applicants must have their Ph.D. degree (or foreign equivalent) in Statistics or a related field by the start of the appointment.

We encourage applications from exceptional candidates with a particular focus on machine learning and large-scale statistical analysis of high-dimensional time-series with applications in change-point detection and computer vision. Duties of this appointment include research, undergraduate and graduate teaching in statistics, and service. The new faculty will also participate in the UW eScience Institute.

Applicants should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, a statement of research and teaching interests, and arrange for at least three (and no more than six) letters of recommendation to be submitted.
All application materials should be submitted online at:
apply.interfolio.com/34900

Review of applications will begin on April 25, 2016 and continue until the position is filled. Applications received by May 25, 2016 are guaranteed full consideration. Questions about the position should be directed to search@stat.washington.edu.

The University of Washington is an affirmative action and equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, protected veteran or disabled status, or genetic information. University of Washington faculty engage in teaching, research and service.
This is not an open position. Recruitment and selection have been completed.
Notice is being provided as a result of filing an Application for Permanent Employment Certification for this job opportunity.
