New! Open Spring Quarter 2003
Statistics Tutor and Study Center!

Thanks to the College of Arts and Sciences funding, we are starting up the Statistics Tutor and Study Center. It is a comfortable place to study or receive free tutoring from our own Statistics Department graduate students and faculty.

Please help us to inform the campus and community about our Center.

For UW students in introductory statistics courses such as Stat 220, Stat 311, Stat 390, QMeth 201, Psych 315 and 318.

FREE Tutoring Hours:

Monday and Wednesday 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Tuesday and Thursday 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Additional hours prior to exams (TBA)

Hours for study:

UW students: 7:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. everyday.
McCarty Hall residents: all day, everyday.

Location information:

The Center is located in the library of the dormitory, McCarty Hall, upstairs from Ian's Domain internet cafe, the third dorm to the north of Padelford.

Congratulations!

The Center for Statistics and the Social Sciences is now a permanent unit of the University of Washington.

Elena Erosheva and Daniela Golinelli (UW Statistics alumna) both made the finals of the Savage Award competition!

Rebecca Nugent has been chosen for the University of Washington Excellence in Teaching Award for 2003.

Grace Chiu, currently PIMS postdoc here at our department, was awarded an NSERC postdoc (Canada's counterpart to an NSF postdoc). She will be doing research in the Department of Statistics an additional two years.

Holiday:

The University of Washington will be closed in observance of "Memorial Day" on May 26, 2003.
