Tulane University Tenure-Track or Tenured Position in Statistics

The Department of Mathematics at Tulane University invites applications for a tenure-track or tenured position in Mathematical Statistics, to begin in the Fall 2019 semester. We seek candidates who have established a strong record of independent research, and have demonstrated a commitment to excellence in teaching. Candidates with a Ph.D. in Statistics, Mathematics, or Applied Mathematics are welcome to apply. While all applicants with appropriate credentials will be considered, preference will be shown to those with a strong methodological component to their research and to those who complement the strengths of existing groups at Tulane.

Applications should be submitted electronically at http://www.mathjobs.org and must include a standard AMS cover sheet, curriculum vita, four or more letters of reference (at least one of which directly addresses teaching), and separate statements on teaching philosophy and research program.

Application review will begin on November 1, 2018.

The Mathematics Department at Tulane has 21 tenured or tenure-track faculty members whose interests span spanning a broad range of fields in both pure and applied mathematics as well as statistics. Our statistics faculty teach and advise students at the undergraduate, masters, and doctoral levels. Please visit us at http://www2.tulane.edu/sse/math/.
