Position: Postdoctoral Scholar
Type: Non-Tenured
Salary: Competitive
Employment Type: Full-Time
Date Posted: December 19, 2019

Description
We are seeking three or more Postdoctoral Scholars (12-month service period) to join an interdisciplinary team from the University of Washington, the Ohio State University, Yale University, and the World Bank. Potential projects are at the intersection of statistics/econometrics and global health, and involve both developing statistical methodology and creating/evaluating tools for policy decision-making.

Postdoctoral scholars are represented by UAW 4121 and are subject to the collective bargaining agreement, unless agreed exclusion criteria apply. For more information, please visit the University of Washington Labor Relations website (https://hr.uw.edu/labor/2019/06/03/agreement-reached-with-uaw-postdoctoral-scholars-on-2019-2021-contract).

Qualifications
Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Statistics, Computer Science, Economics, Sociology, or related field.

Application Instructions
Applicants should submit a curriculum vitae, names of three references, and PDFs of any relevant papers not published or available online.

Applications received by February 1, 2020 are guaranteed full consideration. Review of applications will continue until the positions are filled. Questions about the position should be directed to search@stat.washington.edu.

Equal Employment Opportunity Statement
University of Washington is an affirmative action and equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy, genetic information, gender identity or expression, age, disability, or protected veteran status.

Commitment to Diversity
The University of Washington is committed to building diversity among its faculty, librarian, staff, and student communities, and articulates that commitment in the UW Diversity Blueprint (http://www.washington.edu/diversity/diversity-blueprint/). Additionally, the University’s Faculty Code recognizes faculty efforts in research, teaching and/or service that address diversity and equal opportunity as important contributions to a faculty member’s academic profile and responsibilities (https://www.washington.edu/admin/rules/policies/FCG/FCCH24.html#2432).
